

Animal Parenting Research...

Name: _____

Animal: _____

Assignment Checklist:

_____ The notes are written in your own words...

_____ The notes explain the animal's habitat, including information about the food, water, shelter, and space it needs...

_____ The notes explain how many young the animal has and how it takes care of its young...

_____ The notes include information about predators of the animal and its survival adaptations...

_____ You were able to make connections between your animal and Homarus americanus, the American lobster. You found ways that the animal you studied was similar to and different from the American lobster.

The original drawing of your animal shows its food _____, shelter _____, space _____, predators _____, and young _____.

The drawing shows good effort because it is neat _____, shows depth _____, is detailed _____, and is drawn to scale _____.